

ROBERT WALTERS TAIWAN

JOHN WINTER COUNTRY MANAGER

John joined Robert Walters in October 2013 as the Country Manager of Taiwan. Prior to this he was working in Singapore for another international recruitment business, starting and managing several teams within Financial Services- including risk, compliance, legal and technology.

John graduated from the University of Birmingham where he completed a degree in Economics and Social History. He began his career working for Cadbury's, on a graduate scheme, before starting a business in the UK selling medical equipment. His recruitment experience began nine years ago where he initially focused on sales, marketing and finance. Since his transfer to Asia, he has been able to fulfil his passion for travel by visiting several countries around the region.
